Plan Philanthropies, Activities

Officer Wives Install Board For 1965 Year

Wives of Los Angeles Police Officers, Chapter 4, installed new officers recently at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. William Perkins, with Mrs. Warren Pancake accepting the president's gavel from Mrs. Robert Funk, who served as leader of the group the past year.

Installed with Mrs. Pancake were Mmes. Thomas Haire, vice president; Gene Dossey, secretary; Larry Schultze, treasurer; and William Dumbauid, ways and means chairman.

This chapter, organized in March 1962, is one of five chapters of wives of Los Angeles Police Officers. Purposes of the club are to give aid and assistance to persons and groups in need and to develop the friendships of fellow members and other chapters.

This year Chapter 4 will continue its sponsorship of Girls Scout Troop 1689, Torrance. A part of its philanthropies for 1965 will be the WOLAPO scholarship fund and taking candies and cookies to firemen, who are patients at Central Receiving Hospital. A major philanthropy will be chosen at a later date.

Last year, the group took part in presenting the first WOLAPO College scholarship to Ronald Hegge of Lomita; donated the Troop Flag to Law Enforcement

David Healys Feted on Golden Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Healy, 2245 1/2 241st St., Lomita, were honored at an open house last Sunday afternoon at the Torrance Elks Club on Abalone in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. The party was given by the couple's two sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Healy and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Healy, and their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nielsen.

For this golden event, the honored couple was also surrounded by their ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Healy were married Jan. 27, 1915 in Jefferson, Iowa. They came to Lomita in July, 1941, where Mr. Healy has been employed as a carpenter.

For Sunday's party the Elks Club was beautifully decorated with gold and white floral arrangements. A tiered gold and white anniversary cake centered the table from which refreshments were served from 1 until 4 p.m. Mrs. L. R. Dale was in charge of the guest book, signed by the 125 guests who came to congratulate the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Healy were presented with a money tree from the guests.
